

Indiana already is protected from unwanted phone calls. I get zero unwanted phone calls. Why would I need futher protection from unwanted phone calls. I do not want people I quit doing business with to be able to call me [their is a reason I got rid of their service]. Do not mess with something that does not need fixed. Let the states handle their own telephone privacy laws. It is working perfect in Indiana. Thank You..... Mike